

NAVY BAND NORTHWEST

SHOW BAND

“Cascade”

As the U. S. Navy’s premier jazz ensemble in the Pacific Northwest, “Cascade” offers the finest in America’s true classical music, JAZZ!

Under the musical direction of Musician First Class Timothy Malland, “Cascade” combines the best of jazz and popular music from legends like Count Basie and Stan Kenton to Pat Metheny and Earth Wind & Fire.

A specialty unit of Navy Band Northwest, the group features 18 highly talented and versatile musicians who entertain a variety of audiences numbering over 900,000 annually.

“Cascade” presents concerts and educational clinics at high schools and colleges throughout the Pacific Northwest, and regularly perform for local jazz festivals and the Keyport concert series. In April of 2004, the group was featured as the main event for the Columbia Basin College Jazz Festival in Pasco, WA.

NAVY BAND NORTHWEST

LEADER, “CASCADE” SHOW BAND

Musician First Class Timothy D. Malland, U.S. Navy

Born and raised in Washington State, MU1 Tim Malland began playing drums in the public school systems at age ten, which led to numerous professional engagements while still in his teens, including being hired as a full time percussionist by the Yakima Symphony Orchestra at the tender age of fourteen. He continued his studies with an emphasis on Mallet Percussion at Eastern Washington University and Jazz Studies at Central Washington University. In 1988, Petty Officer Malland enlisted in the Navy as a Musician, attending Boot Camp at RTC San Diego, CA.

After graduating at the top of his class from “A” School from the Armed Forces School of Music in Norfolk, VA, Petty Officer Malland was stationed with Navy Band Memphis as a drummer/percussionist in the Navy’s only “Fleet” Country Band. Subsequent assignments have included duty as a featured soloist with jazz combos, big bands, and rock bands in the Pacific Fleet Band in Honolulu, HI, the SEVENTH Fleet Band in Yokosuka, Japan, and Navy Band Southwest in San Diego, CA. In 2003, MU1 Malland received orders back home to Navy Band Northwest where he currently serves as Unit Leader for the Show Band “Cascade.”

With over 17 years of service, Petty Officer Malland has recorded for radio and television and appeared in concert around the world, performing for audiences in such places as Hong Kong, Singapore, Tokyo, Manila, and Jakarta as well as throughout the United States, China, Russia, Indonesia, Malaysia, South Korea, Philippines, Thailand, and Japan. He has entertained Presidents, Heads of State, Foreign Dignitaries, and hundreds of thousands of civilians and military personnel.

MU1 Malland’s personal awards include the Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal (6 awards). Petty Officer Malland lives with his wife, Maritea and five children, Glaiza, Michael, Marty, Mariah and Cha Cha, near Silverdale, WA.
